ARMSTRONG CEILING SOLUTIONS TO INCREASE PRICE OF AXIOM, DYNAMAX & SERPENTINA SYSTEMS

Geographic Coverage: United States, Canada, and Latin America

Commercial Distributors, Contractors, and Retailers

LANCASTER, PA – Effective June 24, 2024, Armstrong Ceiling Solutions will initiate an 8% increase on the list price of all Axiom and Serpentina solutions. DynaMax and DynaMax Plus projects quoted after the date of this bulletin will be impacted by the increase.

These actions reflect increased raw material costs and macro-economic drivers.

This Pricing Bulletin and the above guidance are based on currently available information and reflect conditions at this time. Consistent with past practices, we will provide updated pricing information in the form of list pricing, bulletins or other notifications, as appropriate, as additional information becomes available. As always, you remain free to quote, price and contract at whatever pricing you may choose in your discretion.

Please always feel free to contact your local area manager with any questions or requests for assistance.

We will continue to focus on delivering innovative high-quality products and world class service to our valued customers, and the ceilings and wall solutions they value.

As always, we appreciate and thank you for your business.
